

1 - GENERAL CONDITIONS

1° Conditions of entry and residence

To be eligible to enter, settle, and stay on a campground, you have to be authorized by the manager or his representative. The latter has the obligation to ensure the good performance and order of the campground, and respect of the application of these rules. The fact of staying on the campsite implies the acceptance of these rules and the commitment to comply. No one can take up residence there.

2° Police formalities

Minors must be accompanied by their parents or legal guardians.

In accordance with Article R. 611-35 of the Code of Entry and Stay of Foreigners and Asylum, the manager has to make foreign customers complete and sign, upon arrival, an individual police record. This has to include:

The name and forenames, the date and place of birth, the nationality, and the usual place of residence.

Children under the age of 15 may be included in the record of one of their parents.

3° Installation

Outdoor accommodation and the related equipment must be installed in the specified area in accordance with the instructions given by the manager or his representative.

4° Reception: Open from 8h.30 till 12h.30 and from 14h.30 till 19h. off season and 8h till 21h. on season.

All information about the campground services, supply possibilities, sports facilities, tourist attractions in and around various addresses that may be useful is available at the reception desk. A system of collection and processing of claims and complaints is available to customers.

5° Posting

These rules are posted at the entrance of the campground and the reception. They are provided to any customer upon request.

For classified campgrounds, the classification category with the mention 'tourism' or 'recreation' and the number of tourism or leisure locations are displayed.

The prices of various services are provided to customers in accordance with the conditions fixed by the Minister in charge of consumption. They can be consulted at the reception.

6° Check-out modalities

Guests are requested to inform the reception of their departure on the eve of it. Customers who intend to leave before the opening time of the reception should pay for their stay on the eve of their departure.

7° Noise and silence

Customers are advised to avoid making any noise that might disturb their neighbors. Sound equipment must be adjusted accordingly. Car doors and trunks should be closed as unobtrusively as possible.

Dogs and other pets should never be left free-roaming. They should not be left on the campground, even if they are locked-up, in the absence of their masters, who are legally responsible.

The Manager ensures the tranquility of his customers by setting schedules during which silence must be total.

8° Visitors

After being authorized by the manager or his representative, visitors can be admitted into the campground under the responsibility of the campers who receive them. Customers can receive one or many visitors at the reception. The services and facilities of campgrounds are accessible to visitors. However, the use of such equipment may be charged at a rate that should be displayed at the entrance of the campground and at the reception.

The visitors' cars are not allowed on the campsite.

9 ° Traffic and parking of vehicles

Within the campground, vehicles must drive at a limited speed. Traffic is allowed from 7h. till 24h. Only the cars belonging to campers may circulate on the campsite. Car parking is strictly forbidden in the areas that are usually occupied by accommodations unless a parking place had been arranged in advance. Car parking should neither hinder traffic nor prevent the installation of newcomers.

10° Facility maintenance and appearance

Everyone is obliged to refrain from any action that could affect the cleanliness, hygiene and appearance of the campground and its facilities, including sanitary ones. It is forbidden to throw wastewater on the ground or in the gutters. Customers must empty their wastewater in the facilities provided for this purpose.

Garbage, waste of any type, and paper must be disposed of in trashcans.

Washing is strictly forbidden outside the tubs provided for this purpose.

Hanging out clothes to dry, if any, will be at the common area reserved for this purpose. However, hanging out clothes is allowed up to 10 hours near accommodations, provided that it is discreet and does not disturb the neighbors. Trees should never be used for this end.

Plantations and flowers must be respected. It is forbidden to drive nails into trees, cut branches, or destroy the plantations.

It is not allowed to delimit the location of a facility by personal means, or dig into the soil.

The costs of repairing any damage inflicted to the vegetation, fences, land or facilities of the campground will be borne by whoever caused it.

The site used during the stay should be maintained in the state in which the camper found it upon his entry into the premises.

11° Security

a) Fire

Open fires (wood, coal, etc.) are strictly forbidden. Stoves must be kept in good condition and should not be used in hazardous conditions.

In case of fire, immediately notify the management. Fire extinguishers are available for use when needed.

A first aid kit is available at the reception desk.

b) Theft

Management is responsible for objects left at the office and has a general obligation to monitor the campground. Campers are responsible for their own installation and shall report the presence of any suspicious person to the manager. Guests are invited to take the usual precautions to safeguard their equipment.

12° Games

No violent or disturbing games can be organized near the facilities.

The meeting room cannot be used for physical games.

Children should always be under the supervision of their parents.

13° Storage

Unused equipment cannot be left on the ground unless with the agreement of management and only in the specified location. This service may be fee-based.

14° Breaching internal regulations

In cases where a resident disturbs the stay of other customers or does not comply with the provisions of the present rules, the manager or his representative may instruct him/her, if he deems it necessary, to stop disorders, orally or in writing.

In case of serious or repeated breaches of the internal rules and after a notice from the Manager to comply, the latter may terminate the contract.

In case of a criminal offense, the manager may call the police.

2 - PARTICULAR CONDITIONS

The silence must be total between 23h and 7h. Unaccompanied children must not be alone at the campsite.
